The Board of Supervisors hereby declares that it would have passed each section, subsection, subdivision, paragraph, sentence, clause or phrase thereof, irrespective of the fact that any one or more sections, subsections, subdivisions, paragraphs, sentences, clauses or phrases be declared unconstitutional or invalid or ineffective.

(b) If the application of any provision or provisions of this Article to any lot, building, structure, parcel of land, or operation is found to be invalid or ineffective in whole or in part by any court of competent jurisdiction, or other competent agency, the effect of such decision shall be limited to the property or situation immediately involved in the controversy, and the application of any such provision to other properties and situations shall not affected.

AMENDMENT OF THE WHOLE PRESENTED IN BOARD BY SUPERVISO HUTCH 4/9/79. Adopted as amended.

FILE NO. 116-79

ORDINANCE NO. 160-79

AN ORDINANCE REPEALING CHAPTER 26A OF THE SAN FRANCISCO ADMINISTRATIVE CODE AND PROHIBITING THE CONVERSION OF EXISTING RESIDENTIAL BUILDINGS TO CONDOMINIUMS FOR A PERIOD OF 45 DAYS; AN EMERGENCY ORDINANCE.

BE IT ORDAINED by the people of the City and County of San Francisco

Section 1. Findings.

The Board of Supervisors finds that since the adoption of the Subdivision Code in April, 1975, there has been an increasing number of condominium conversion conversion subdivisions in San Francisco. The Board finds that during 1978, applications involving a total of 57 multi-family residential buildings containing 1,027 dwelling units have been filed for condominium conversions, as compared with a total of 16 buildings in 1977 involving 817 units, 6 buildings involving 54 units in 1976, and 3 buildings containing 64 units in 1975. The board further finds that in response to the growing concern that conversions result in a loss of rental housing which adversely affects the people of San Francisco, particularly low and moderate income households and the elderly, the city planning Commission has asked for the development of proposals for amendments to the Subdivision Code to further restrict the conversion of existing rental housing into condominiums and to reduce the adverse impacts of such conversion on the city's population, particularly low and moderate income households and the elderly The board further finds that proposals prepared by the department of city planning have been endorsed by the city planning commission and have been reviewed and approved as to form by the city attorney. The board further finds that in recent weeks there have been a number of additional proposals that require further consideration before being incorporated into the proposed amendments to the Subdivision Code, which consideration may take several more weeks.

Presented in draft 4/2/79 Adopted & as amended 4/9/79

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS Supervisor Ella Hill Hutch

The board further finds that during this time condominium conversion applications will continue to be filed, exacerbating the concern relative to adverse impacts on the city's population and housing stock. Pending the adoption of amendments to the Subdivision Code, it is necessary for this board of supervisors to prohibit for a period of time the conversion of multi-family residential buildings to condominiums.

Section 2. Prohibition.

No tentative subdivision map nor any type of parcel map to convert residential building which contains more than one (1) habitable residential rental dwelling to a condominium, excluding those which have never before been occupied, shall be accepted by the director of public works for forty-five (45) days following the effective date of this ordinance or until such time as the Board of Supervisors takes action with regard to the amendment of the Subdivision Code and such amendment, if any, becomes effective, whichever occurs first.

4/9/79 al

Section 3. Severability.

If any section, subsection, subdivision, paragraph, sentence, clause, or phrase of this chapter or any part thereof, is for any reason held to be unconstitutional or invalid or ineffective by any court of competent jurisdiction, such decision shall not affect the validity or effectiveness of the remaining portions of this chapter or any part thereof. The board of supervisors hereby declares that it would have passed each section, subsection, subdivision, paragraph, sentence, clause or phrase thereof, irrespective of the fact that any one or more sections, subsections, subdivisions, paragraphs, sentences, clauses or phrases be declared unconstitutional or invalid or ineffective.

Section 4. Chapter 26A of the San Francisco Administrative Code is hereby repealed.

Section 5. Emergency Provision. This ordinance is hereby enacted as an emergency ordinance pursuant to Charter Sections 2.300 and 2.301. The basis for said emergency is as follows:

An increase in condominium conversions coupled with a low vacancy factor and increasing rents has precipitated a rental housing crisis in San Francisco. The number of condominium conversion applications has greatly increased during the last twelve months, straining the ability of the Department of Public Works, City Planning Department and the Board of Supervisors to process applications within the time limitations established by the State Subdivision Map Act. In anticipation of the enactment of this ordinance, applications continue to be filed at an increasing rate. Because of the large number of pending applications, the City and County may be prevented from properly reviewing those applications within the required time limitations, resulting in the automatic approval of such applications, thus creating an actual emergency.

Section 1. The San Francisco Administrative Code is hereby amended by adding Article XIV thereto, reading as follows:

Article XIV. Assassination Survivorship Fund.

SEC. 16.600. Findings.

The Board of Supervisors finds and determines as follows:

1. Threats and aggressions against elected public officials often arise from dissatisfaction with the lawful discharge by said officials of their public duties.

3. Therefore, elected public officials bear an unusual risk of assassination.
4. Elected public officials who are threatened by assassination at the hands of those who are dissatisfied with the lawful discharge of their public duties must be concerned for the welfare of surviving dependents.
5. Elected public officials who are concerned for the welfare of surviving dependents will necessarily be deterred from the full and uncompromised exercise of duty.
6. To the extent that elected public officials are deterred from the vigorous discharge of their duties, the public welfare is impaired.
7. Therefore, the public welfare is furthered by ensuring that elected public officials may discharge their duties as trustees of the people's sovereign powers without fear for the well-being of their surviving dependents.

SEC. 109.1. Purpose The passage of Proposition 13, the property tax reform measure on June 6, 1978 ballot, has meant substantial property tax decreases to most landlords in the City and County of San Francisco. Through the use of a Renters Hot Line and public hearings, it has been found that a substantial number of landlords have increased the rents of tenants, and few have decreased rents, despite the passage of Proposition 13.

The Board of Supervisors will be considering the feasibility and desirability of measures designed to address the problems created by the unjustified spiraling rents in the City and County of

 Now Presented in Board by Supervisors Lau and Renne in Board 4-16-79

San Francisco. Pending further study of the development and adoption of measures to address the problems created by the unjustified rent increases, it is necessary to temporarily roll back rents and, through June 14, 1979, to prohibit most rental increases on rental residential units within the City and County of San Francisco.

SEC. 109.2. Definitions (a) Housing Services: Services connected with the use or occupancy of a rental unit including, but not limited to, repairs, replacement, maintenance, painting, light, heat, water, elevator service, laundry facilities and privileges, janitor service, refuse removal, furnishings, telephone, parking and any other benefits, privileges or facilities.

(b) Landlord: An owner, lessor, sublessor, including any person, firm, corporation, partnership, or other entity, entitled to receive rent for the use of any rental unit, or the agent, representative or successor of any of the foregoing.

(c) Moratorium Period: The period of time beginning on the effective date of this article and continuing through June 14, 1979, or until such time as the Board of Supervisors establishes a procedure for the adjustment and/or regulations of rents, whichever occurs first. During this period, rents shall not be increased.

(d) Rent: The consideration, including any bonus, benefits or gratuity demanded or received, for or in connection with the use or occupancy of a rental unit or the transfer of a lease for such a unit, including but not limited to monies demanded or paid for parking, for furnishings, for housing services of any kind, for subletting, or for security deposits for damages and/or for cleaning.

(e) Rental Units: All dwellings in the City and County of San Francisco designed for rental use or actually rented at any time on or after June 1, 1977 including single family dwellings and mobile homes, together with the land and buildings appurtenant thereto, and all services, privileges, furnishings and facilities supplied in connection with the use or occupancy thereof, including garage and parking facilities. The term shall not include:

(1) housing accommodations in hotels, motels, inns, tourist homes and rooming and boarding houses (which are rented primarily to transient guests for a period of less than fourteen (14) days;)

(2) dwelling units in non-profit cooperatives owned and controlled by a majority of the residents;

(3) housing accommodations in any hospital, convent, monastery, extended care facility, asylum, non-profit home for the aged, or in dormitories owned and operated by an institution of higher education, a high school, or an elementary school;

(4) dwelling units which a government unit, agency or authority owns, operates, or manages or which are specifically exempted from municipal rent regulation by state or federal law or administrative regulation;

(5) dwelling units located in a structure completed or newly constructed after the effective date of this article.

(6) dwelling units subject to a legally binding lease which sets forth the rental unit rent, provided that said lease was entered into prior to the effective date of this ordinance.

(f) Tenant: A tenant, subtenant, lessee, sublessee or any other person entitled to the use or occupancy of any rental unit.

SEC. 109.3 Rental Increase Moratorium and Rollback Provisions

(a) Beginning on the effective date of this article and continuing through June 14, 1979, or until such time as the Board of Supervisors establishes a procedure for the adjustment and/or regulation of rents, whichever occurs first, rental units rents shall not be increased.

(b) During the moratorium period, the maximum rent for a rental unit in the City and County of San Francisco shall be the following:

Each violation of any provision of this article, and each day during which any such violation is committed, permitted or continued, shall constitute a separate offense.

SEC. 109.5. Refusal of a Tenant to Pay a Rent Increase

A tenant may refuse to pay any increase in rent which is in violation of this article and such violation shall be a defense in any action brought to recover possession of a rental unit or to collect the illegally charged rent increase.

SEC. 109.6. Severability If any provision or clause of this article or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held to be unconstitutional or to be otherwise invalid by any court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity shall not affect other article provisions or clauses or applications, and to this end the provisions and clauses of this article are declared to be severable.
